

Rental Agreement

Priority for Springside Apostolic Bible Camp activities takes precedent over any time available for rental to third parties.

Any renter shall adhere to the constitution & policy manual of Springside Apostolic Bible Camp.

No activity carried out can be in violation of the elements that make up ACOP & SABC constitutions, statement of faith or policies. Any activities that are contrary represent sufficient reason not to enter into a rental agreement or to void it if contrary actions come up subsequent to the agreement being signed.

(The Full Constitution, Statement of Faith & Policies are available on our website)

No unsafe or illegal activity will be allowed and, if engaged in contrary to policy, is cause for immediate revocation of the Rental Agreement.

The final determination on any issue in dispute rests with the board of directors of Springside Apostolic Bible Camp, or a delegate issued by the board for such rental.

The board of Directors of Springside Apostolic Bible Camp at a rental event will have exclusive rights to determine if the charity's Rental Policy and Rental Agreement are being adhered to and may take appropriate corrective action, up to and including the immediate cessation of the event.

Costs

Each rental agreement cost shall be discussed and approved by the board of directors upon application.

A refundable deposit of $500 shall be made before the rental agreement is accepted.

Insurance

The renter must carry their own liability insurance, and provide the camp board of directors with proof of insurance

The renter shall list the camp as additional insured on their policy

Rental Fee's shall be decided by the board of directors on a case by case assessment.

Clean Up

The rental group is responsible to clean the grounds and facilities before departure.

The camp should be left in the state it was found. If the cleanliness is not to the liking of the camp board the deposit of $500 will not be reimbursed.
